

People we will learn about:

Yayoi Kusama

Baby Jesus

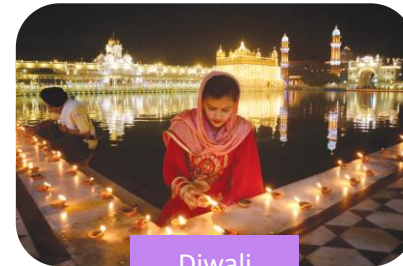

Crucial Knowledge

In addition to becoming very familiar with our core texts, through drama, play and retelling, children will learn that:

- stories can change and be adapted over time.
- some building materials are better for building houses than others and be able to explain why.
- Diwali is a festival celebrated by many people around the world, including people who are Hindu and Sikh.
- Diwali is celebrated in a range of ways, including by lighting candles and decorating the home.
- Yayoi Kusama is an artist who often uses dots and bright colours in her work.
- Christmas is a celebration that is enjoyed by many people around the world.
- the nativity story is an old story from the Christian religion that tells us about the birth of the baby Jesus.
- Christmas is celebrated in a range of ways, including decorating trees and exchanging presents.

Rangoli pattern

Diwali

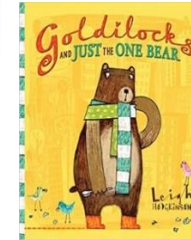

Christmas

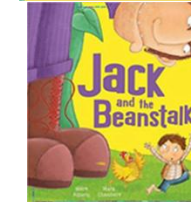

Books of the Week (Core texts)

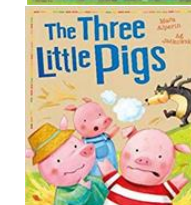

Cosy
Magnificent Crept

Lolloping
Frothy
Pattering

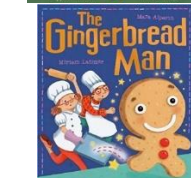

Crumbling
Gigantic
Clutched

Scurried
Beware
Galloped

Simmered
Wilted
Luminous

Goopy
Grumbled
Swirled

Stable
Swaddling
Worship

This builds on our learning in Nursery about magical and traditional tales.

This will help us when we learn about...

Authors and Artists Y1

Trips and experiences:

Goldilocks role play area

Cooking gingerbread characters

Christmas show

Core Songs

Christmas Show songs

Artist Links:

Yayoi Kusama